

MARKET LAUNCHES IN UPTOWN LEAMINGTON

LEAMINGTON — The weather was perfect for the opening of the Brewhouse Market in uptown Leamington on Saturday, with shoppers anxious to sample the goods offered by the vendors. The market will run every Saturday morning throughout the summer from 9 am until 1 pm. They expect to have about 30 vendors offering a variety of goods to consumers. Organizer Lisa Bradt was happy with the early turnout and expects the market to grow as restrictions are further lifted this summer. The market is located at Cured Craft Brewing Company at 43 Mill Street West, beside the Arts Centre. Sun photo

Municipal retirees make sizeable donations to charities

REGIONAL — The Municipal Retirees Organization of Ontario (MROO) has recently made donations to charitable causes in the region totalling over $7,000.

Leamington retiree Bruce Peacock is the Zone 1 Director for MROO and covers an area from Essex County all the way up to Sarnia.

The association usually holds an annual zone meeting, but were unable to this year, so they've taken the funds set aside for that and in total, have donated $126,000. They have 25,000 members across Ontario.

Peacock is responsible for making donations in this area, which include the Essex County Firefighters Burn Unit, A Book of My Own Literacy Program, Leamington Half Century Centre, SECC, Chatham-Kent Women's Centre & Shelter, Chatham-Kent Family Services, Salvation Army Chatham-Kent, Salvation Army Leamington, The Bridge Youth Centre and St. Vincent De Paul. Many other charities outside of the readership area have also benefited.
